Report of the Board of Directors

Fullgoal China Small-Mid Cap Growth Fund 2024 Annual Report

2024 Market and Fund Operation Review

In 2024, the fund delivered a return of +14.6% (reference Class: Class I1 (USD) Share), outperforming the MSCI China Small and Mid-Cap Index, which rose by 9.5%. This resulted in an excess return of 5%. Notably, the fund achieved positive annual returns for the first time after two consecutive years of losses in 2022 and 2023. Similarly, the benchmark index recorded positive annual returns for the first time for the first time following three years of negative performance.

Reflecting on the Chinese market in 2024, both value and growth stocks have demonstrated strong performance. Following a dip in early February, the market experienced two rapid, policy-driven rallies. Although there was a subsequent decline, the market's lows gradually increased with each fluctuation. Therefore, we believe that the period of continuous capital outflows from the Chinese market in 2022 and 2023 has come to an end. We are seeing a significant influx of capital into various forms of Chinese equities, particularly in the Hong Kong stock market. In 2024, for instance, 281 listed companies in Hong Kong conducted share buybacks totaling HKD 265.7 billion. Moreover, the inflow into the Hong Kong stock market through the Stock Connect reached a record high of HKD 800 billion. While fundraising for pure long-only funds remains challenging, there is a strong availability of capital for long-short strategies in the Chinese market.

In the value stock sector, high-dividend stocks backed by free cash flow have generally experienced notable increases. Conversely, the growth stock sector has displayed significant divergence; some high-performing growth stocks have achieved returns exceeding 100%, while those with disappointing results have seen considerable declines. Within our portfolio, growth stocks such as Pop Mart, Trip.com, Giant Biogene, TSMC, Inspur, and Futu have all contributed positively with solid returns.

As we look ahead to 2025, we are confident in the Chinese equity market. The main factor contributing to the market's poor performance over the past two to three years—persistent capital outflows—has largely subsided. Despite the overall macroeconomic landscape not being particularly robust, China has seen the emergence of a number of highly competitive companies with significant structural growth potential. Furthermore, the overall market valuation remains quite appealing. Simultaneously, long-term government bond yields in China have dropped below 2%, resulting in a shortage of quality assets. Given this backdrop, we are optimistic about the future performance of the Chinese equity market.

2024 Market and Fund Operation Review

The market fluctuated significantly in 2024, with the dividend index leading the market upward in the first half of the year. The market fell sharply in the middle of the year due to economic data and liquidity shortages. The market rebounded strongly before China's National Day, and major market indices achieved strong annual returns. From a sectoral perspective, non-bank finance, banking, telecommunications, home appliances, and electronics were among the top gainers. Pharmaceuticals, agriculture, forestry, animal husbandry, fisheries, food and beverages, beauty care, and textiles and apparel underperformed significantly. The focus of market transactions in the first half of the year was on the valuation recovery of dividend-yielding assets in a low-interest rate environment. Mid-year trading centered around AI and AI-related hardware, and market attention shifted to domestic computing capabilities and semiconductor equipment in the second half of the year. Overall, capital flows' influence on the market far exceeded the impact of fundamental factors.

Looking ahead to 2025, we anticipate that supply-demand imbalances will persist across most industries. Global expansion has become a necessary choice for Chinese companies. We are optimistic about the performance of Chinese manufacturing companies venturing overseas. The apparent strength of China's manufacturing lies in the cost advantage. Fundamentally, it lies in the foundation of cultural heritage, sophisticated production organization, and sustainable manufacturing capabilities. We remain optimistic about the high-dividend yield sector. Market interest rates are still declining, and there is still good potential for valuation rerating of dividend-yielding assets. In terms of industry, we are optimistic about the automotive, non-bank finance, banking, machinery, and electricity sectors. We will also closely observe the performance of the real estate sector in 2025. Housing prices play a decisive role in the recovery of domestic demand.

Audit report

To the Shareholders of Fullgoal International Funds SICAV

Our opinion

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of Fullgoal International Funds SICAV (the "Fund") and of each of its sub-funds as at 31 December 2024, and of the results of their operations and changes in their net assets for the year then ended in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements.

What we have audited

The Fund's financial statements comprise:

- the statement of net assets as at 31 December 2024;
- the statement of operations and changes in net assets for the year then ended;
- the schedule of investments and other net assets as at 31 December 2024; and
- the notes to the financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 on the audit profession (Law of 23 July 2016) and with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) as adopted for Luxembourg by the "Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier" (CSSF). Our responsibilities under the Law of 23 July 2016 and ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF are further described in the "Responsibilities of the "Réviseur d'entreprises agréé" for the audit of the financial statements" section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, including International Independence Standards, issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA Code) as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements. We have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities under those ethical requirements.

Other information

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information stated in the annual report but does not include the financial statements and our audit report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

Cabinet de révision agréé. Expert-comptable (autorisation gouvernementale n°10028256) R.C.S. Luxembourg B 65 477 - TVA LU25482518

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Fund and those charged with governance for the financial statements

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors of the Fund determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors of the Fund either intends to liquidate the Fund or close any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Fund's financial reporting process.

Responsibilities of the "Réviseur d'entreprises agréé" for the audit of the financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an audit report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control;

- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors of the Fund;
- conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors of the Fund's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our audit report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our audit report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern;
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

7 Performance Fees

The Investment Manager is entitled to charge a Performance Fee on shares of Class PF (USD) which have appreciated in value over the High Water Mark for each performance period. The High Water Mark is higher of: (i) the Initial Price of a share of Class PF (USD); and (ii) the Net Asset Value per Share of a share of Class PF (USD) as at the end of any previous performance period in respect of which a Performance Fee was paid (i.e. after deduction of all fees including any Performance Fee and any distribution declared or paid in respect of that performance period). Where a Performance Fee is payable for a performance period, the Net Asset Value per Share of a share of Class PF (USD) on the last Performance Fee Valuation Day of that performance period will be set as the High Water Mark for the next performance period. The Performance Fee shall accrue on each Business Day throughout a performance period and be calculated on the last Business Day of each financial year ("Performance Fee Valuation Day"). If the Gross Asset Value per Share of a share of Class PF (USD) exceeds the High Water Mark, a Performance Fee accrual will be made. If not, no Performance Fee Valuation Day will be reversed and a new Performance Fee accrual will be calculated and made in accordance with the above. If the Gross Asset Value per Share of a Share of Class PF (USD) on a Performance Fee valuation Day is lower than or equal to the High Water Mark, all provision previously accrued will be reversed and no Performance Fee will be accrued.

Performance Fee is payable annually on a high-on-high basis (i.e. when the Net Asset Value per Share of a share of Class PF (USD) as at the last Performance Fee Valuation Day of a performance period exceeds the High Water Mark.

Remuneration Disclosure

Remuneration policies and practices

The Management Company has established and applies a remuneration policy and practices that are consistent with, and promote, sound and effective risk management and that neither encourage risk taking which is inconsistent with the risk profiles, rules, the Prospectus or the Articles of Incorporation nor impair compliance with the Management Company's obligation to act in the best interest of the SICAV ("the Remuneration Policy").

The Remuneration Policy includes fixed and variable components of salaries and applies to those categories of staff, including senior management, risk takers, control functions and any employee receiving total remuneration that falls within the remuneration bracket of senior management and risk takers whose professional activities have a material impact on the risk profiles of the Management Company, the SICAV or the Sub-Funds. Within the Management Company, these categories of staff represent 19 persons.

The Remuneration Policy is in line with the business strategy, objectives, values and interests of the Management Company, the SICAV and the Shareholders and includes measures to avoid conflicts of interest.

In particular, the Remuneration Policy will ensure that:

a) the staff engaged in control functions are compensated in accordance with the achievement of the objectives linked to their functions, independently of the performance of the business areas that they control;

b) the fixed and variable components of total remuneration are appropriately balanced and the fixed component represents a sufficiently high proportion of the total remuneration to allow the operation of a fully flexible policy on variable remuneration components, including the possibility to pay no variable remuneration component;

c) the measurement of performance used to calculate variable remuneration components or pools of variable remuneration components includes a comprehensive adjustment mechanism to integrate all relevant types of current and future risks.
