-China A-Share: A-shares is an expression designating shares that trade on the two Chinese stock exchanges-. A-shares are shares of mainland-China-based companies and were historically only available for purchase by mainland citizens. Since June 2020, the State Administration of Foreign Exchange ("SAFE") has removed investment quota limits to further open up mainland China's financial markets and to better facilitate foreign investors' participation in the Chinese financial markets through the QFII/RQFII (Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor/Renminbi Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor) license and other channels available.

-Financial derivatives Instruments: Financial instruments whose characteristics and value depend on the performance of one or more underlying assets, typically securities, indexes, currencies or interest rates.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are the limits?

- The lowest category does not mean a risk free investment.
- The risk and reward profile may change over time.
- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.

Why is the Fund in this specify category?

This Fund is in category 6, since the share price has a high volatility, therefore the risk of loss as well as the expected reward can be high.

Material risks not adequately captured by the risk auditor include:

- Counterparty Risk: The insolvency of any institutions providing services such as safekeeping of assets or acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments, may expose the Fund to financial loss.
- Credit Risk: The Fund can invest a material part of its assets in bonds. Their issuers can become insolvent, thus their bonds can either partly or entirely diminish in value.
- Liquidity Risk: The Fund may invest a material part of its assets in other funds. With these funds there can be a risk of suspension of redemption and therefore their liquidity can be constrained.
- Stock Connect risk: The Fund may be investing in China A-Shares via the Shanghai/Shen Zhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect which may entail additional clearing and settlement, regulatory, operational and counterparty risks.

A complete description of risk factors is set out in the Fund's Prospectus in the Appendix II entitled 'Risks of Investments'.
